

Change of particle mass due to phase change and coagulation

Redistribution, conserving mass and total particle number

(a) Moving Average (MA)

Particles in each bin grow in diameter, until they reach the next size bin and all move to it.
Continuous growth as long as particles stay within bin

(b) Fully Stationary (FS)

Particles are divided between bins, so that mass and number concentration are conserved, unchanged diameter

