

Economic-institutional coping capacity is determined by economic strength and institutions.

Hydro-climatic complexity refers to the magnitude of challenges to satisfy water use requirements.