Dear Ms Kerkweg,

thank you for your comments.

We have changed the title of our manuscript to “An EC-Earth coupled atmosphere-ocean single-column model (AOSCM.v1_EC-Earth.v3) for studying coupled marine and polar processes” and will update this in the revised version.

Usage of and access to the EC-Earth source code are licensed to affiliates of institutions which are members of the EC-Earth consortium. More information is available at
