Dear Authors,

The anonymous comment which was posted in this discussion has been removed by the editorial office as it did not adhere to the instructions related to short-comments, namely:

A referee of a manuscript should judge objectively the quality of the manuscript and respect the intellectual independence of the authors. In no case is personal criticism appropriate.

There were an number of unsubstantiated accusations in the comment which cannot be corroborated and seemed to originate from some potential conflict outside the remit of the GMD platform.

Jason Williams.
