

Following the last discussion with the Editor, we addressed the remaining comments as follow:

- In the Abstract, we removed the following sentence:
In the past 20 years, MISTRA has been used in over 25 studies to address a wide range of scientific questions.
- In the Author Contribution section, we added this sentence:
This paper is dedicated to the memory of Roland von Glasow who sadly died before the final version could be prepared.
- In the Acknowledgements section, we added 2 sentences :
