

Title: "The Regional Coupled Suite (RCS-IND1): application of a flexible regional coupled modelling framework to the Indian region at kmscale"

I appreciate the efforts the authors have done to address my concerns. Now I am happy to recommend this manuscript for publication in "Geoscientific Model Development".

Recommendation: Accept.

Thank you for answering my question on storm surge (RC1). I recommend adding your research plan on this topic in the Key research priorities part (Line 750). May be a little more detail on point 1.
